From the Evening Edition. COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS .- Both boards of the ity Council were in session this morning Frilay, and fighting over the liquor cases and Judge Sullock's decision. They finally passed a resoluion declaring it to be their intention not to issue iny license for selling liquor to any man, tavernkeeper or no tavern-keeper. They expressed a villingness to grant license te keep a house of encrtainment, but without the privilege of retailing urdent spirits. The Julgo has ordered attach nents to be issued, which will probably be ready on donday, and then the city fathers will be sent to ail for their resistance to a decree of the const.

So it seems that the anti-Catholic issue is the great one in the contest, although more than onethird of the Grand Council voted against making it any part of the creed, and more than one-half of the Southern members. It appears, therefore that one-half of the Southern Know-Nothings are not sound in the faith. They are herelies on the main point. Mr. Morehead, too, is not as PRESEDOM OF OPINION IN RUSSIA.—A letter in the Constitutionael, from St. Peuersburgh, mentions a circumstance which has just caused some sonsation there. A person of large property having said at a privat party, "I would willingly give 10,000 roubles (the rouble is somewhat over 4 fr.) for the war, if I knew when we were to have peace," was summoned the next day before the military governor, who received him in presence of several persons of distinction, and said, "Sir, if you pledge me your word to pay this day the sum of curiosity on that point to which you alluded last evening." "I promise to pay that sun," replied the other. "Well, then," said the governor, have to inform you that we are to bave peace when you como back from the Caucasus, where year are to proceed this afternous, after having jaid the sum agreed on. God be with you." This is alwoot as bad as in France.
